

Personnel - Certified/Non-Certified

Non-School Employment

School personnel may engage in outside activities as long as these activities do not interfere with the proper discharge of their assigned duties.

Private Tutoring

No private tutoring or services for which a fee is received will be conducted in school buildings. Certified employees under contract with the Waterford Board of Education shall not tutor for pay, students attending the school(s) in which they teach nor tutor where a conflict of interest may exist as determined by the Superintendent of Schools.
